My dear friend
Wm L Garrison:

36 Upon receipt of thine of 6th inst I saw Mr Greene. He apologizes with the excuse that he mailed thy letter to "Washington" instead of Boston as he was writing so many Washington letters that day. It went to the dead letter office & was returned. He promptly handed me the $50 & I have procured a draft which please find enclosed. I am pleased to have it satisfactorily settled & always happy to serve thee.

Thy visit to Washington was at a remarkable period and while thy opinion respecting the President & the state of the country is startling it is not very different from the judgment of some of our soundest thinkers. Our good friend George Truman told me yesterday, he had a vision a fortnight since of some warlike Coup d'etat from the President, involving us in trouble, but at the time merely communicated it to his family.

I am thinking of the Peace Convention & weighing the matter prayerfully I may say, to do the right thing. That I can prosecute business by going. But I want the light of the Highest power. Ever thy friend with regards to thy family
